

MARINE ASSETS CORPORATION

PRESS RELEASE

12th September 2016

WORLDS FIRST SUB SEA MINING VESSEL TAKING SHAPE IN CHINA.

MAC's new build vessel Hull No 301, 227m LOA x 40m Beam, PSV. (Production Support Vessel) progress assembly at Fujian Mawei shipbuilding Culu Island new shipyard. SE China.

With the installation of the bow block, which is made up of 3 separate blocks, weighing 480t in total, the main hull section nears completion.

On completion Q1 2018, she will commence a 5y TC with Nautilus Minerals and become the first ever Deep Sea Mining Support Vessel.

